My Path to Quilting - Romania to USA

I met Dora Cary at Road 2019 and was totally charmed – by her and her quilts. She brings a fresh delight to the whole tradition of quilting and the joy is infectious.

Chris McDonald

Orange Dot Quilts was created in 2015 by Dora Cary, a Romanian-born engineer and designer who moved to the United States in 2001, discovered quilting in 2006, made her first quilt and became an American citizen in 2008, and wrote her first quilt pattern in 2013.

She now has more than 20 quilt and bag patterns and even more patterns are waiting to be created. She has several notebooks filled with ideas and sketches waiting to be turned into quilts, bags, or something else altogether.

She says, “I love quilting for the creativity and freedom of expression it gives me, and I love the quilting community for the amazing generosity and sense of camaraderie.”
